Has great ideas that you can use and springboard from. I have already been teaching my grandkids scraping and card making (great gift for relatives, receiving homemade cards from children!) but these are new and easier than what I have been teaching them. Especially good for kids under 8. (My 8 year old granddaughter is amazing.)0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Exciting New BookBy jatkinHaven't tried any as yet, but I sure like what I see. So happy to have something new to work with.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fun, colorful and doable by all levels and ages of craftersBy Stefanie G.Fun, colorful and doable by all levels and ages of crafters. The projects in this book are so bold and bright it is fun to look at every page. The projects use diverse types of paper and skills (gluing, cutting, stitching, coloring, taping, painting, folding) The cards can be made for virtually every holiday and special event. Great big directions and all the templates are included in the back. A go-to book for lots of crafting and creating!

35 step-by-step card-making projects for children aged 7+ Whatever the occasion, you'll find the right card to make in My First Card-Making Book. In Chapter 1, Everyday Cards, there are lovely ideas such as the felt flower card, patchwork card, and button nest card. The cards in Chapter 2, Fun Cards, will help you bring a smile to someones face with ideas including the finger puppet card and lollipop card. You can make the holidays really special with the creative cards in Chapter 3, Festive Cards, including the cut-out bauble card, cosy fur-trimmed cards, and cute and easy color-in Christmas card. Finally, in Chapter 4, Special Occasions, you'll find celebratory cards to mark special occasions such as getting married or having a baby, as well as Easter and Valentines Day cards. Each of the projects is broken down into simple illustrated steps and has a skill rating, starting with very easy and progressing as you become more experienced at card-making. Get started now, and make someones day with a home-made card, crafted with love.
