Juliet de la Rochefoucauld : Women Jewellery Designers before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Women Jewellery Designers:

Celebrates the enduring work of women jewelers and jewelry designers from around the globe, throughout the twentieth century to the present day Including works by Coco Chanel, Suzanne Belperron, Paloma Picasso, and many more From the best-selling author of 21st-Century Jewelry Designs, ISBN 9781851497294, and Lydia Courteille, ISBN 9781851498376 This sumptuous book showcases the work of women jewelers in the twentieth century. Beginning with Arts Crafts jewelers in Britain, Europe and North America, the author then examines the key figures and movements of the pre-war period including Coco Chanel's legendary 'Bijoux de Diamants' exhibition of 1932, the designs of Suzanne Belperron and the roles of Jeanne Toussaint at Cartier and Rene Puissant at Van Cleef Arpels. From the 1950s to the present day, a wide range of international designers are examined in detail with many examples of their work clearly illustrated. The author focuses on themes associated with jewellery, including color, light, proportion, nature and legends. Among the many names included are Vivianna Torun Blow-Hbe (designer for Georg Jensen), Margaret De Patta, Wendy Ramshaw, Angela Cummings, Paloma Picasso, Marina B, Lydia Courteille and Michelle Ong.
